Southside Gardens

I hope our congregation have noticed how colourful our church gardens have looked over the year. Chris has been very conscientious and willing to keep the garden tidy and watered during our hot Summer. Chris has put new plants which are very colourful and will grow next Summer.

Our congregation would like to say thank you Chris.

2019 Flower Rota

The flower rota for 2019 is now on the notice board. April and July have most date changes so please would you check your dates. Thank you to those who buy and arrange their own flowers and also the donation I receive when I arrange your flowers for you. We have several vacancies mainly in December if you would like to add your name; I would be grateful. Best wishes for New Year may it be happy and peaceful for all.
